

The Stock Exchange to-day was 6 cent. At the Bank of England the demand was heavy, and in the discount market there was continued activity at full rates.

In the foreign exchanges the rate upon Hamburg was again rather lower. With regard to other places there was no alteration from last year.

The quotations from the Paris Bourse this evening again failed to arrive. Yesterday the final transactions were as follows:

The Three per Cent were at 80 for money and 80½ for the end of the month, showing an improvement of 7½ cent.

The value by the Canals from Boston to-day is $24,000. The whole will be sent to the Continent.

The new rates of exchange announced by the India House will have the effect of bringing silver into proportionately increased demand.

Silver has been in great request to-day, and to meet continental purchases, about $20,000 of gold was taken this afternoon from the Bank.
